AS CONGREGATION MISHKAN OR, WE ARE STRONGER TOGETHER

Congregation Mishkan Or unites the diverse communities of two beloved Reform congregations in Cleveland, making history together: repairing the world through Tikkun Olam, coming together for spiritually uplifting worship, expanding lifelong learning for every generation, and acting as a community of loving kindness. We support one another, engage our young people on college campuses, strengthen the State of Israel, and partner with people of all faiths to combat hate and build peace.

Your support of the annual appeal is essential to these ongoing and new opportunities at Congregation Mishkan Or.

On Rosh Hashanah, more than 100 gathered at Edgewater Park for Tashlich, a beautiful atonement ritual of casting our sins in the water to begin the new year.

Pets are our families, and we saw that when almost 100 members and their furry friends attended our first Pet Blessing.

Our clergy team is experimenting with new and expanded ways to celebrate Shabbat and Jewish holidays, including a new Tuesday Morning Minyan and Shabbat B'yachad (Together).

In September, we filled the Sanctuary to hear eight Israeli guests from Kibbutz Sufa share harrowing stories of October 7, 2023. Mishkan Or is committed to an enduring relationship with Kibbutz Sufa as part of our love of Israel.

Our Caring Community's passion to help others reaches beyond our synagogue walls! Volunteers fill vases to be delivered to people in hospitals and nursing homes, support local food pantries, sponsor collections to help unhoused persons, and much more.
